

EXAMPLES OF SOME OF THE LIFE QUESTIONS FACING YOUNG ADULTS

Career:

- *What gifts have they been blessed with?
- *What interests do they have?
- *What do they want to do with their lives?
- *How will they be able to achieve that?
- *What resources will they need in order to get there?
- *What networking strategies/opportunities are they (or could they be) engaging in right now?
- *How will their social media posts help or hurt their image to potential employers?

Education:

- *Where/what will they study during their teenage years?
- *Will they attend religious education programs (such as confirmation)?
- *Will they pursue higher education after graduating from their high school programming?
- *What "real world" education are they engaging in/experiencing?

Faith:

- *What will they believe, and stand for?
- *Why will they believe what they believe? Which influences will be the most impactful in defining their faith (family, church, television, friends, curriculum taught in school, etc.)?
- *If they have a belief in God, how will it be their faith (and not just what their parents/guardians taught them)?
- *How will they be equipped/prepared to live out (and grow in) their faith when challenges arise?

Finances:

- *At what age will they start earning an income?
- *How will they know how to handle their finances?
- *Will they have a checking account? Savings account? Retirement account? Other investments?
- *Do they have a plan for handling expenses such as a vehicle, entertainment, education (college), travel, wedding, home, children, emergency, etc.?

Hobbies:

- *What immediate and/or lifelong hobbies will they pursue?
- *How much of a time commitment will they make towards their hobbies?
- *How much of a financial commitment will they (or their parents/guardians) make towards hobbies?
- *Will they know how to set (and keep) appropriate boundaries between their hobbies and other priorities?

Lifestyle:

*Where will they want to live?

*Will they be interested in getting married (and if so, how will they find “the one”)?

*Do they want to have a family?

*What sort of income/resources will they need in order to live the type of lifestyle they envision?

*When it is all said and done, what legacy do they want to leave behind?

Social:

*What sort of friends/social group will they spend their time with?

*How/where will they make friends?

*Where on the list of priorities will friends/socializing come?

*What kind of social media involvement will they have?
